Dear Parents and Carers,

13th February 2020

Mother's day is fast approaching and we are calling all mothers to engage with us in a little competition.

Reading for Pleasure has been a big focus in school and the impact of the children seeing other adults as readers has been tremendous. Therefore, we are hosting a Mother's Day competition to find the mother who can be spotted reading in the most bizarre place (this could be your Mum, Nan, Gran, Aunt etc...).

Can you get your child to take a photo of you/ family member reading and send it in to us at our school email address: enquiry@deanery.bham.sch.uk with the subject heading 'Mother's Day Reading' and on the email: put your child's name and class.

We will then judge who we think has read in the most bizarre place and this mother will win our prize!

We are sure this will be a fun activity to do with your child and it will also allow your child to see you as a reader. How can we expect children to do something that they don't see us doing?

Can we ask that all entries are emailed to school by Monday 16th March 2020.

As always we thank you for your continued support.

Many Thanks

Miss Morris, Mrs Milne and Miss Pullen.
